some of the mone cannon our asymmaters took the trouble to inquire at the telegraph offices before delivering themselves of their pent up emotions, and found, alsa! that no such news had been received over any of the lines coming to the city. Then it gradually dawned upon the massive intellect of the Honorable Mr. Speaker that he was a victim of misplaced confidence, and those who had enthused so freely over the canard turned their energy in snother and more regular channel and swore not loud but deep.

The origin of the rumor is difficult to trace. The temperance people are inclined to think that it originated among the saloon keepers, who desired to revive their droopling business, and some even hint that Louy Gans put up the job himself in order to draw a crowd of thirstsy souls to his concert. THE TEMPERANCE EXCITEMENT. It looks very much as if the temperance people intend to "hold the fort till Murphy comes." We can not see that there is snything more than a natural diminution of interest since the departure of Messrs. Dunbar and Stringer, and it so slight as to augur no ill to the cause. Meetings were held at the North Street and Zane Street M. E. Churches last evening, which were successful both as regards numbers and enthusiasm. At an early hour the seats were

A. G. Marshall, who was found in Mrs. Atwell's company, at an assignation house in the Second Ward, was also fined $10, which he paid. New Cars.—The Board of Directors of the Citizens' Street Railway company yesterday decided to adopt the one-horse cars allogether on their line. They now have two one-horse cars, and nine more will be purchased. Mr. A. M. Adams was appointed togo East and contract for the building of the cars. As they will in all probability be built to order, some time, perhaps two months, will elapse before they will be received here. The old cars will be used in the meantime, Four of the cars on the line have been provided with pay-boxes, and the remainder will be so supplied within a few days.
